Hi,

Thank you so much for your kind letter, it's nice to know that I have such nice friends. I hope the enclosed picture is OK, it was taken at my villa in Rome. I was there doing two films, which I hope you will watch for. These were: "The Biggest Bundle of Them All" for MGM, (Guess who is the Biggest Bundle?) and "Shoot Loud...Louder, I Don't Understand" in which I star with Marcello Mastroianni. Both these films are comedies and were a lot of fun to make.

I am now in Spain filming "Fathom" for 20th Century-Fox. I play Fathom, a girl who is after a priceless work of art, and I'm being pursued by the forces of good and evil alike. Only I don't know who is who.

I'm sorry my letter has been so long in reaching you but, as you can see, I have been very busy in different parts of the world. So your letter had a hard time finding me, but I'm so glad it did.

Again, thank you for your interest in my career. It's people like you that make all the work worthwhile, and I hope that you will take the opportunity to see my first two films that will be coming your way very soon. These are: "Fantastic Voyage" and "1,000,000 Years B.C."--I'm sure that you will enjoy them.

Well, I must get back to the set and I hope to hear from you soon. Take care!
